

Surveillance and/in Everyday Life: Monitoring Pasts, Presents and Futures

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

THE SURVEILLANCE & EVERYDAY LIFE
RESEARCH GROUP

Sydney Law School, Eastern Avenue, University of Sydney

Conference Schedule

MONDAY FEBRUARY 20TH 2012

8:30 – 9:00am	Registration and Coffee (EASTERN AVENUE FOYER)
9:00 – 9:15am	Welcome address (EASTERN AVENUE LECTURE THEATRE)
9:15 – 10:30am	Morning Keynote: Professor David Lyon (EASTERN AVENUE LECTURE THEATRE)
10:30 – 11:00am	 Refreshments Break  (EASTERN AVENUE FOYER)
11:00 – 12:00pm	Surveillance and Everyday Life Roundtable (EASTERN AVENUE LECTURE THEATRE)
12:00 – 13:00pm	 Lunch  (EASTERN AVENUE FOYER)
13:00 – 14:15pm	Parallel Session 1
14:15 – 14:45pm	 Refreshments Break  (EASTERN AVENUE FOYER)
14:45 – 16:00pm	Parallel Session 2
16:15 – 17:30pm	Parallel Session 3
17:30pm	DAY 1 CLOSE
18:00 – 20:00pm	Drinks and Canapés (EASTERN AVENUE FOYER)

Monday, February 20th 2012

13:00-14:15pm

PARALLEL SESSION 1

Session Title	Biometric Technologies	Surveillance as Cinematic Text	Self and Surveillance Cultures	Surveillance, Accountability and Regulation
Location	New Law Lecture Theatre 024	New Law Lecture Theatre 026	New Law Seminar Room 020	New Law Seminar Room 022
Presenter, Paper Title	Vanessa DIAZ RODRIGUEZ, Criminal databases: current operational examples of biometric systems in Australia, Mexico, New Zealand and Spain	Tony CHALKLEY & Adam BROWN, 'Big Brother, I see you': representations of surveillance in film	Tonya ROONEY, Stories of selfhood: the altered experience of remembering and forgetting in a surveillance landscape	Laureen SNIDER, Criminalizing the algorithm? Stock market crime in the 21st century
Presenter, Paper Title	Sylvia KUHNE, Trustworthy biometrics? (Ir)rationalities of voluntary fingerprint users	Rowena GRANT-FROST, The unblinking dystopian eye: surveillance and film genre	Chris RUDGE, Ancient instincts, modern hardware: the vestigiality of paranoia and its reanimation in the context of modern medical surveillance technics	Emmeline TAYLOR, Visibly invisible: The surveillance of foreign domestic workers in Singapore and the impact on privacy
Presenter, Paper Title	Katina MICHAEL, Towards the blanket coverage DNA profiling and sampling of citizens in England, Wales and Northern Ireland: a historical review	Kylee HARTMAN-WARREN, Magic mirrors and mind invasions: surveillance in adolescent fantasy cinema before and after 9/11	Erin STEWART, Surveillance and the present body	Jann KARP, Global tracking systems and networking systems within the Australian interstate trucking industry
Chair

Monday, February 20th 2012

14:45-16:00pm

PARALLEL SESSION 2

Session Title	Risk, Borders and Surveillance	Virtual Intimacy and Emotionality	Historical Perspectives	Politics of Information and Community Engagement
Location	New Law Lecture Theatre 024	New Law Lecture Theatre 026	New Law Seminar Room 020	New Law Seminar Room 022
Presenter, Paper Title	Peter MARKS, Monitoring the end of the world: surveillance, epidemics and environmental apocalypse	Harriet WESTCOTT, The paradox of less and more distance – migrants' use of technologies to watch over friends outside Australia	Stephen ROBERTSON, Private detectives and privacy in the early-twentieth-century United States	Nicolas BULLOT & Kellie WILLIAMSON, The psycho-historical theory of human agent tracking: an integrative framework to explain and classify the types of power afforded by information gathering and surveillance
Presenter, Paper Title	Leanne WEBER, The logic of border surveillance	Rebecca SHANAHAN, On distance, intimacy & the ubiquitous camera	Dolores JANIEWSKI, Private scrutiny, public exposure: countersubversive investigators and the press in the United States, 1920-1960	Jo CHIPPERFIELD, Keeping an eye out: gossip, surveillance and investigation in a 1920s murder inquiry
Presenter, Paper Title	Darren PALMER & Ian WARREN, Nation of the banned? Governing through zones of exclusion	Gilbert CALUYA, Intimate surveillance: the hidden lives of 'nanny cams' from espionage to pornography		Peter ROGERS, Rethinking resilience: surveillance, community and the UK riots
Chair

Monday, February 20th 2012

16:15-17:30pm

PARALLEL SESSION 3

Session Title	Surveillance and Consumption Practices	Pre-emptive Surveillance, Law and Social Control	Artistic Practices and Interventions
Location	New Law Lecture Theatre 024	New Law Lecture Theatre 026	New Law Seminar Room 020
Presenter, Paper Title	Mark ANDREJEVIC, Monitoring social media: sentiment analysis and opinion mining on Web 2.0	Jessie BLACKBOURN & Nicola MCGARRITY, Listening and hearings: using intercept surveillance evidence in the courtroom	Kathy CLELAND, Seeing and being seen: modes of surveillance in contemporary art practice
Presenter, Paper Title	Andre MONDOUX, Towards a surveillance society? The integration of GPS into social networks	Frederick DESROCHES, The criminal investigation and surveillance of higher level drug traffickers	Mary LUCKHURST, 9/11 and The Falling Man: the creation and monitoring of taboo
Presenter, Paper Title	Nicholas CARAH, Watching nightlife: alcohol consumption, branding and social media	Tamara TULICH, Pre-emptive surveillance: the curious case of the 'hybrid' control order	Carolyn MCKAY, Surveillance: the artist as voyeur
Chair

Conference Schedule

TUESDAY FEBRUARY 21ST 2012

- 8:30 – 9:00am Registration and Coffee (EASTERN AVENUE FOYER)
- 9:00 – 10:15am Morning Keynote: Professor Kevin Haggerty (EASTERN AVENUE LECTURE THEATRE)
- 10:15 – 10:45am  Refreshments Break  (EASTERN AVENUE FOYER)
- 10:45 – 12:00pm Parallel Session 4
- 12:00 – 13:00pm  Lunch  (EASTERN AVENUE FOYER)
- 13:00 – 14:15pm Parallel Session 5
- 14:15 – 14:45pm  Refreshments Break  (EASTERN AVENUE FOYER)
- 14:45 – 16:00pm Parallel Session 6
- 16:15 – 17:30pm Parallel Session 7
- 17:30 – 18:00pm Closing discussion: Surveillance and/in Everyday Life (EASTERN AVENUE LECTURE THEATRE)
- 18:00pm CONFERENCE CLOSE

Tuesday, February 21st 2012

10:45am-12:00pm

PARALLEL SESSION 4

Session Title	Surveillance and Social Media	Securitisation of Territory and Population	Surveillance, Risk and Public Health	Surveillance, Performativity and the Machine
Location	New Law Lecture Theatre 024	New Law Lecture Theatre 026	New Law Seminar Room 020	New Law Seminar Room 022
Presenter, Paper Title	Melissa GREGG, All in your hands: Smart phones, intimacy and adultery	Amanda ELLIOT, Constructing vulnerability, responsabilizing victims: public space and the securitization of gender	Deborah LUPTON, M-Health technologies: configuring bodies and health in surveillance society	Pia VAN GELDER, Machine visions/performing cameras
Presenter, Paper Title	Peter HOLLAND & Rob HECKER, Social networking and the workplace: an uneasy alliance	Ben KELLY & Deirdre HOWARD-WAGNER, Intervention, surveillance and control: the Northern Territory National Emergency Response and the special measures designed to regulate the Indigenous population	Martin HOLT, Enacting gay men, risk and HIV prevention knowledge: the looping effects of behavioural HIV surveillance in Australia	Petra GEMEINBOECK & Rob SAUNDERS, Embodied surveillance: the look of machine desire
Presenter, Paper Title	Nash PETROPOULOS, Internalizing new modes of surveillance through social media platforms and smartphones in the post 9/11 era	Simone EISENHAUER, Managing event places and viewer spaces: security, surveillance and business interests at the 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa	Jed HORNER, Public health in/as 'national security': the contemporary regime of border control in Australia	Barbara DORAN, Grey matter?
Chair

Tuesday, February 21st 2012

13:00-14:15pm

PARALLEL SESSION 5

Session Title	Surveillance, Policing and Crime Prevention	Political Economies of Surveillance and Discipline	Technologies of the Body and Sexuality
Location	New Law Lecture Theatre 024	New Law Lecture Theatre 026	New Law Seminar Room 020
Presenter, Paper Title	Garner CLANCEY & Rohan LULHAM, 'Natural' surveillance	Lynne CHESTER, Surveillance of the vulnerable: Australian markets for essential goods and services	Sophia JOHNSON, Whose womb is it anyway? An exploration of the practices of surveillance and self- regulation during pregnancy and early mothering
Presenter, Paper Title	Ian WARREN & Darren PALMER, Theorising surveillance, policing and the London Riots of August 2011	Fiona ALLON, Follow the traces: 'flexible control' in domestic space	Paul BYRON, Tactical self-surveillance and young people's sexting
Presenter, Paper Title	Jessica RITCHIE & Rick DRAPER, CCTV; restoring the focus	Mike DEE, Surveillance Town: social inclusion-exclusion through surveillance, 'the dignity of work' and income management	Patrick CREMIN, Facial recognition
Chair

Tuesday, February 21st 2012

14:45-16:00pm

PARALLEL SESSION 6

Session Title	Sousveillance and Acts of Resistance	Visibility and Pedagogical Disciplines	Courting Surveillance: Evidence and Proof
Location	New Law Lecture Theatre 024	New Law Lecture Theatre 026	New Law Seminar Room 020
Presenter, Paper Title	Murray LEE & Alyce MCGOVERN, “Every move you make”: citizen journalism, surveillance and the police	Kunari NAMRATA, Technological surveillance and its social implications: a case of school discipline	Gary EDMOND, Richard KEMP, Kristy Matire, Glenn Porter, Mehera San Roque & Jason Tangen (PANEL),
Presenter, Paper Title	Meg MUNDELL, Reverse zoom: surveillance and resistance after Orwell	Alexander HAYES & Katina MICHAEL, Location enabled body worn technologies in the education sector	Courting Surveillance: CCTV and Other Technologies as Evidence and Proof
Presenter, Paper Title	Christopher STEWART, Looking back: a recent history of photography and surveillance	Philip DEARMAN, Educational social networking: a genealogy of the panoptic playground
Chair

Tuesday, February 21st 2012
 16:15-17:30pm
PARALLEL SESSION 7

Session Title	Reconceptualising Surveillance	Surveillance Possibilities	Surveillance Futurologies
Location	New Law Lecture Theatre 024	New Law Lecture Theatre 026	New Law Seminar Room 020
Presenter, Paper Title	Gavin SMITH, Cyborg politics in cybernetic territories	Liisa MAKINEN, Webcams as a form of surveillance	Mark AZZOPARDI, Cyborg futures? Reading the discourse of radio frequency identification implants
Presenter, Paper Title	Hille KOSKELA, New directions of surveillance: 'the four vectors'	Richard EVANS, 'Extension, reversal, retrieval, obsolescence': applying McLuhan to surveillance	Robert ROTHMANN, Stefan VOGTENHUBER, Michael HODLMOSER, Andreas ZWENG & Martin KAMPEL, Algorithmic video analysis and the detection of crime in car parks
Presenter, Paper Title	John MACWILLIE, The ontological status of seeing a public	Daniel PALMER, Google Street View and the mediation of social space	Katina MICHAEL, Christine PERAKSLIS & MG MICHAEL Microchip implants for employees in the workplace: findings from a multi-country survey of small business owners
Chair			